DEFINITIONS, ACRONYMS, AND FORMS

DAI – Division of Adult Institutions

DOC – Department of Corrections

Electronic Monitoring - The use of various methods of electronic surveillance to gather and retain information about the activities and locations of inmates.

Recording - The electronic recording (video and/or audio) of an inmate's activities.

Surveillance - Close observation (including electronic monitoring and recording) of a group or individual under suspicion.

PROCEDURE

- I. Surveillance and/or monitoring of activities throughout the facility may be accomplished by electronic devices including audio and visual recordings.
- II. English and Spanish notification of electronic monitoring shall be provided at the facility entrance and inmate handbooks.
- III. Monitoring and/or surveillance of activities may occur anywhere subject to the following exclusions:
  - A. Inmate/attorney visits.
  - B. Medical discussions where confidentiality is an issue.

- C. The facility shall develop procedures that enable inmates to shower, perform bodily functions, and change clothing without nonmedical staff of the opposite gender viewing their breasts, buttocks, or genitalia, except in exigent circumstances or when such viewing is incidental to routine cell checks.
- IV. Recording interviews with inmates may be conducted with approval by the Warden/designee through the use of video and/or audio equipment by approved staff.
- V. The Warden/designee shall assign staff to review surveillance recordings.
- VI. The DAI Administrator/designee shall be notified if any alleged staff misconduct is suspected or observed during the course of an investigation involving electronic monitoring of inmates.
- VII. Use of electronic recordings as evidence during a staff investigation of alleged misconduct requires the notification of the DAI Administrator.
- VIII. The planned use of electronic surveillance to monitor/record staff activities (in cases of alleged misconduct) requires the approval of the DAI Administrator and DOC Secretary's Office.
- IX. The DAI Administrator shall notify the DOC Secretary's Office if electronic surveillance or monitoring reveals staff misconduct.
