PROCEDURE

I. General Guidelines

- A. Pornographic materials received in the facility shall not be delivered to inmates.
- B. Pornography includes, but is not limited to:
 1. Written materials which the average person, applying state contemporary community standards, would find, when taken as a whole does all of the following:
 - a. Appeals to the prurient interest.
 - b. Describes human sexual behavior in a patently offensive way.
 - c. Lacks serious literary, artistic, political, educational or scientific value.
 2. Any material, other than written material, that shows any of the following:
 - a. Human sexual behavior.
 - b. Sadoomasochistic abuse, including but not limited to flagellation, bondage, brutality to or mutilation or physical torture of a human being.
 - c. Unnatural preoccupation with human excretion.
 3. Any commercially published material that features pictures/drawings of nudity on a routine or regular basis.
 - a. Publications shall not be prohibited solely because they display naked or partially covered buttocks.
 - b. A publication shall not be prohibited solely because it contains pictorial nudity that has a medical, educational, or anthropological purpose.

DAI Policy #: 309.00.50	New Effective Date: 08/15/16	Page 3 of 5
