 DAI Policy 309.20.03 – PIOC Personal Property and Clothing
Effective – 09/11/24

ELIGIBILITY & EXPECTATIONS:

- PIOC must be enrolled in specified activity per DOC-661 to obtain approved hobby items.
- Hobby tools and supplies must be purchased from contracted vendors only.
- All hobby items must be stored properly in cell, hobby area or other staff-controlled area per facility procedure.
- DAI Policy 309.20.03 permits one oversized item. Products with asterisk (*) may together be counted as one oversized item.
- Quantity limits are specified for each hobby activity separately, but must fit within the total permissible volume. For example, PIOC enrolled in Model Making along with Drawing and Painting may possess up to six model paint bottles/tubes, plus up to 24 drawing/painting paint bottles/tubes.
- All containers must be plastic (no glass or metal).
- All liquids, paints and glue are reviewed by the DAI Property Committee for safety prior to offer in the catalogs. Cyanoacrylate (e.g. Super Glue, Crazy Glue) is prohibited.
- Completed hobby projects must be disposed of (e.g., donated/sold via facility hobby program, mailed out, sent out during visit) per facility procedure.
- PIOC personal religious property is accommodated per DAI Policy 309.61.02. Hobby projects may be approved for congregate (chapel) religious art only, not for PIOC personal religious property.
- PIOC in temporary status (IC/Barracks/Dormitory) may have further restrictions on total property, including hobby property, due to space restrictions.
