VISIT ENTRANCE PROCEDURES

Winnebago Correctional Center is a Tobacco Free Environment. Tobacco will not be allowed in lobby upon entrance; it needs to be secured in your vehicle. Smoking is not allowed on center grounds or in parking lots.

With the exception vehicles with handicap permits, visitors are required to park their vehicles in the designated parking area. This area is marked with a sign "visitor parking". Failure to park in the area without permission may result in your visit being denied. If the designated "visitor parking" is full, visitors are required to inform the lobby staff.

In accordance with Wisconsin Administrative Code the parking lot is subject to search for any items of contraband. The Oshkosh Police Department and other law enforcement agencies will assist in these searches with canine units. The canine unit searches may lead to probable cause searches of the vehicle by law enforcement if contraband is detected.
