PROCEDURE

I. General Procedures for Facilities with a Librarian

- A. Library materials shall be readily accessible to all inmates in accordance with facility security levels and ADA requirements.
- B. Each facility shall determine the primary roles of its library (e.g., recreational reading center, education support center, independent learning center, legal information center) and the content of the materials collection shall be related to these library roles.
- C. Librarians shall create and maintain a library materials collection development plan which addresses:
 1. Subject and genre coverage and depth.
 2. Weeding criteria.
- D. The librarian shall attempt to maintain an up-to-date collection of:
 1. Standard works in relevant fields of knowledge.
 2. Materials of permanent value.
 3. Timely materials on current issues.
 4. Items for which there is consistent interest.
- E. Librarians shall select library materials based on the following criteria:
 1. Insight into human and social conditions.
 2. Suitability of subject and style for intended audience.
 3. Relevance to facility needs.
 4. Attention of critics, reviewers, and the public.
 5. Appeal to the interests and needs of inmates.
 6. Permanent value as authoritative source material or interpretation.
 7. Contemporary significance.
 8. Artistic excellence and originality of thought.
 9. Entertaining presentation.
 10. Factual accuracy.
 11. Suitability of physical format.
 12. Technical quality.
 13. Skill, competence and purpose of author.
 14. Relevance to existing library holdings and subject coverage.
 15. Price and availability of funds.

DAI Policy #: 309.05.01	New Effective Date: 03/16/20	Page 3 of 5
Chapter: 309 Resources for Inmates
Subject: Selection of Library Materials

16. Compliance with DOC policies, Wisconsin Statutes, Wisconsin Administrative Code and judicial directives.
- F. Not all of these criteria must be met in each case but may be referred to in the selection process. The criteria are not to be used to exclude materials reflecting particular ideas or beliefs that may be unpopular with other population groups.
- G. Standard review media and professional resources shall be used in the selection of library materials.
- H. In facilities where the Wisconsin Interlibrary Loan System services are utilized, inmates and staff may request materials through the librarian using a DOC1449. Interlibrary loan materials shall meet the same inclusion and exclusion criteria as those in the library's own collection.
- I. Facility libraries shall not select materials that:
1. Are pornographic.
 2. Teach or advocate violence or hatred and present a danger to institutional safety and order.
 3. Teach or advocate behavior that violates the rules of the DOC or state and federal laws.
 4. Teach or describe the manufacture or use of weapons, explosives, drugs or intoxicating substances.
 5. Teach or describe the manufacture of devices that are likely to create a substantial danger of physical harm to self or others.
 6. Are otherwise injurious.
 7. Are marked as denied on any of the following DAI lists available on myDOC:
 - a. Library Materials Reviewed.
 - b. Reviewed Books – Inmate Property.
 - c. Reviewed Publications.
- J. Facility staff may make recommendations for library materials to be added to the library's collection.
- K. Librarian shall consult with the Security Director/designee on library materials which may present a security risk.
- L. Materials lost, stolen or destroyed are replaced as necessary, in order to maintain a well-rounded collection or to meet a particular facility need.
- M. Priorities for replacements are determined by the librarian.
- N. The librarian may accept donated publications if they meet the same standards required of library materials that are purchased.

Subject: Selection of Library Materials

- O. No title shall be judged for exclusion by taking single passages/pictures out of context and basing condemnation of the material on such passages/pictures.
- P. Staff and inmate concerns/objections/suggestions regarding the withdrawal or addition of library materials shall be submitted to the librarian for review on a DOC-2404.
- Q. The librarian shall review the DOC-2404 and determine if the requested title shall be retained or added to the library's collection.
- R. Appeals to the librarian's decision may be filed with the librarian's supervisor within 30 days on a DOC-2406.
- S. If the librarian believes the title in question is not suitable for the library, the librarian shall use the DOC-2405 to recommend the removal of the material to the DOC Library Materials Review Committee.
- T. The librarian shall notify the submitter of the DOC-2404 of the final disposition of the request.

II. General Procedures for Facilities Without a Librarian

- A. Facilities which maintain reading collections for inmates but do not have professional library staff shall follow the same selection and exclusion criteria as used by facility librarians.
- B. Facilities which maintain reading collections shall refer to the central list of reviewed library materials, maintained by the Library Materials Review Committee when selecting/reviewing inmate reading materials.

III. The Library Materials Review Committee Shall:

- A. Use the DOC-2405 to make final decisions on review requests submitted by librarians.
- B. Use the DOC-2406 to make final decisions on appeals to librarian's decisions.
- C. Notify librarians of final dispositions by Committee.
- D. Maintain central list(s) of reviewed materials that have been approved or denied for inmate access.

DEFINITIONS, ACRONYMS, AND FORMSFACILITY PROCEDURE

- I. The role of the PDCI library is to provide a diverse selection of materials that support the library as a legal materials access point and popular materials center.
 - A. As the budget allows, the librarian may support ongoing PDCI programming and school classes, with items recommended by staff.
 - B. The PDCI Library Collection Development Plan will be available for inmates and staff to view.
- II. DOC-2404 and DOC-2406 forms will be made available to inmates at no charge.
 - A. Inmates who request these forms and do not use them for their intended use may be charged the same fees as for other copies.
 - B. Once a DOC-2404 has been filed for any library materials, a second DOC-2404 will not be processed for the same materials.
- III. Once a staff member or inmate has expressed concerns/objections/suggestions regarding materials, the librarian may withdraw from circulation the questionable library material. The material may be kept out of circulation until the Library Materials Review Committee has made its final decision.
- IV.
