WICS – Wisconsin Integrated Corrections System

PROCEDURE

I. Intake

- A. Staff shall provide inmates with an orientation to the RH unit within one working day of placement, outlining behavioral expectations and available programming.
- B. PSU staff shall assess inmates with MH-2A, MH-2B or ID codes within one working day of placement within RH, as outlined in DAI Policy 500.70.01.
- C. Staff shall designate a step level for each inmate who receives disciplinary separation.

II. RH Step Programs

- A. Each facility shall develop a RH Step Program that provides inmates with opportunities and incentives to improve their attitudes and behavior while earning additional freedoms, privileges and property.
- B. RH Step Programs shall involve at least three steps. Facilities may implement a fourth step as described in Section III.
- C. RH Step Programs shall include the following features:
 - 1. Behavioral incentives.
 - 2. Self-help and in-cell programming.
 - 3. Staff encouragement and constructive feedback.
 - 4. Out-of-cell groups, counseling and programming as recommended by staff.
 - 5. Additional out-of-cell time for programming and activities for inmates with MH-2A, MH-2B and ID codes.
- D. Inmates may earn time off of their disciplinary separation sanction for each day they demonstrate positive behavior. In general, time earned shall be one day of the disciplinary separation sanction for every one day of positive behavior. Positive behavior may include:
 - 1. Adherence to housing unit rules and expectations.
 - 2. Positive interactions with staff.
 - 3. Completion in-cell or out-of-cell programming.
- E. Release from disciplinary separation may be accelerated based on program participation, demonstration of reduced risk and other factors as determined by the Warden.
- F. Documentation on progress and reasons for adjustment shall be included on the DOC-30.

DAI Policy #: 303.00.02	New Effective Date: 07/16/18	Page 4 of 13
Chapter: 303 Discipline
Subject: Restrictive Housing Programs and Review

III. Steps Levels

- A. Step 1 inmates shall be housed in the RH main unit.
 - 1. Placement may occur upon initial entry into RH or may represent a return from a higher step level if the inmate engages in conduct that may result in a major sanction.
 - 2. Placement shall be based on evaluation of risk, focusing on violent or assaultive behaviors.

- B. Step 2 inmates may be housed in the RH main unit or another unit designated for such placement. An inmate may attain this level as the result of acceptable behavior and attitude, or be assigned as initial placement if the committing offense is non-assaultive or considered a manageable risk.

- C. Step 3 inmates may be housed in the RH main unit or another unit designated for such placement.
 - 1. An inmate may attain Step 3 as the result of acceptable behavior and attitude while in Step 2.
 - 2. Inmates transferring from another facility at the same step may also be placed at this step.
 - 3. The focus of Step 3 shall be to test readiness for a return to general population.

- D. Step 4 inmates may be housed in the RH main unit or another unit designated for such placement.
 - 1. Inmates in Step 4 shall be allowed out of their cell for a minimum of two hours each day or for a minimum of 14 hours each week for activities.
 - 2. Out of cell activities shall involve social interaction with staff or other inmates may be conducted without the use of restraints. Potential activities include recreation, dayroom and programming.
 - 3. The focus of Step 4 shall be to test readiness for a return to general population. A facility may progress an inmate to Step 4 in lieu of Step 3.

IV. RH Review Team

- A. Facilities with a RH unit shall maintain a RH Review Team to conduct reviews of all inmates housed in the facility's RH units.

- B. RH Review Teams shall contain, at minimum, the following staff. The Warden shall designate one member of the group as chairperson.
 - 1. Corrections Program Supervisor or Security Supervisor assigned to RH.
 - 2. Health Service Manager or HSU staff member.
 - 3. PSU staff member.
 - 4. Other staff as designated by the Warden, such as Psychiatrist, Social Worker, Program Escort Officer and Security staff.
 - 5. Administrators and/or Central Office staff for specific cases.

DAI Policy #: 303.00.02	New Effective Date: 07/16/18	Page 5 of 13
Chapter: 303 Discipline
Subject: Restrictive Housing Programs and Review

V. Review of Inmates in RH

- A. The RH Review Team shall review the status, programming, and needs of all inmates placed in RH, regardless of status, at least every 30 days and document on DOC-30. Reviews shall address the following:
1. Mental health concerns such as suicide risk and psychosis.
 2. Development of BMPs when needed.
 3. In-cell or out-of-cell programming that would assist with the inmate's adjustment.
 4. Medical concerns such as food/fluid intake and medication compliance.
 5. Security concerns such as vulnerability, assault risk, escape risk, escort and special placement needs.
 6. Any necessary restrictions or precautions.
 7. Recommendations to adjust Step Status based on inmate behavior and program participation.
 8. Other concerns as appropriate.
- B. The RH Review Team and/or Security Director shall forward recommendations on the DOC-30 to the Warden/designee, who may adjust steps or remove an inmate from RH at any time.
- C. The RH Review Team may promote or demote an inmate's status at any time prior to the 30 day review if the inmate's behavior warrants it.
- D. The RH Review Team may coordinate discussion of selected inmates with the facility's mental health multidisciplinary team as needed.
- E. The RH Review Team shall document the reviews and recommendations on DOC-30. The original and any copies of DOC-30 shall be kept in a locked location with access limited to staff with a clear job-related need to know the corresponding medical and mental health information.

VI. Step Progression

- A. All inmates are eligible to progress through the steps of a RH Program. The rate of progression and release decisions may be influenced by any of the following factors:
1. Behavior, attitude and motivation.
 2. Interaction with staff or inmates.
 3. Program needs and participation.
 4. Security classification.
 5. Facility adjustment and conduct history.
 6. Security risks to staff, inmates, facility or community.
 7. Medical concerns.
 8. Mental health concerns including psychological input.
 9. Mitigating factors and any special circumstances.

DAI Policy #: 303.00.02	New Effective Date: 07/16/18	Page 6 of 13
Chapter: 303 Discipline
Subject: Restrictive Housing Programs and Review

- B. Security Supervisors and the RH Unit Manager/Program Supervisor may immediately place inmates who display disruptive behavior or serious misconduct in a more restrictive step, provided alternative sanctions are not appropriate. Such changes shall be reviewed by the RH Review Team at the next meeting.
- C. Staff shall consider the inmate's adjustment to TLU when determining the most appropriate disposition, rate of progress through step levels, and/or most appropriate release date from RH status.

VII. Restrictions/Security Precautions

- A. Any inmate who exhibits threatening, violent, self-abusive, or serious disruptive behavior may be subject to security precautions and/or placed on restrictions as outlined in DAI Policy 306.00.34.
- B. Restrictions and precautions shall be imposed at the lowest level in order to achieve the desired results.

VIII. BMPs

- A. Staff may develop BMPs for RH inmates who routinely exhibit behavior that cannot be adequately managed through existing step programs and practice, as outlined in DAI Policy 500.70.30.
- B. BMPs require a multidisciplinary approach with clear documentation of the rationale for the plan and the ability for the inmate to provide input or dispute any element of the plan. Plans shall be limited in duration and allow for basic needs.
- C. Any inmate with an MH-2A, MH-2B or ID mental health code who receives a disciplinary separation disposition of 60 days or more shall have a BMP developed within 10 days of disposition.
- D. Any inmate with an MH-2A, MH-2B or ID mental health code who is placed in Administrative Confinement shall have a BMP developed within 10 days of placement.

IX. Administrative Confinement

- A. Administrative confinement is an involuntary non-punitive status for confinement of inmates in a RH unit whose continued presence in general population poses a serious threat to life, property, self, staff or other inmates, or to the security of the facility.
- B. Inmates may be referred for possible placement in Administrative Confinement pursuant to Wisconsin Administrative Code Ch. DOC 308.

X. Protective Confinement
